All employees

- Human Resources invites all new employees to participate in a virtual New Employee Orientation session to help them seamlessly integrate into our dynamic environment. New Employee Orientation sessions are hosted on every second Tuesday (or Wednesday if it follows a long weekend) of the month. Please contact Human Resources for more information.

Faculty

- The Teaching & Learning Centre offers a New Faculty Orientation session every term, required for full-time faculty to participate and also open to part-time faculty. These sessions cover services and supports that impact the teaching practice at Seneca. Please contact teaching@senecapolytechnic.ca for more information.
